First.

In view of the fact that the Conference assessments and Centenary collections have suffered seriously in the past year we urge the Presiding Elders and pastors to make a very strenuous effort to raise both in full the coming year.

We recommend an assessment of $8,000.00 upon the Conference. Inasmuch as the Pastors' Training School, held at Russellville this year, was a splendid success, having nearly one hundred pastors in attendance. We suggest that the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions constitute a committee to meet with such a committee from the Louisville or other Conferences to discuss plans of co-operation in a joint school the coming year, and that they be empowered to determine the place and time of holding same.

REPORT NO 1—BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board of Education beg leave to report that the past year has been one of great prosperity for Kentucky Wesleyan College. It was our first year, with none but full college students in attendance, and was entered with some apprehension that our dormitories might not be filled, but at the opening of school a larger number of students applied than we had dared to hope for.

We had enrolled during the year 135 full college students and, in order to care for them, we were compelled to fit up extra rooms for boys in the building formerly used for the academy and to rent an extra house for the overflow of girls.

To meet the further increase this year we have purchased for the girls, just across the street from our campus, the house built by Dr. J. W. Fitch, so long and so well known in our Conference, and are building a new dormitory for boys just at the end of the old Clark Hall. This new dormitory is to be three stories above the basement, of fire-proof construction throughout, with a dining room in a well lighted basement that will seat two hundred persons and with thirty rooms in which we can care for from sixty to seventy-five students.

The religious life of the students is being carefully looked after. We have twelve young men in the College who are preparing for the ministry besides a number who are volunteers for mission work. Early in the year a revival was held by President Campbell in which many students were converted and the spiritual tone of the entire student body raised. The members of the faculty took an active part in the revival and the effects of it were visible throughout the year.

It is the policy of your Board to strengthen our courses in Religious Education as rapidly as possible. For the coming year we have employed Dr. E. R. Naylor to have charge of this department of our work and for the first time are able to raise the standard to that of a full professorship. The faculty is composed of a body of active, Christian teachers and we are keeping faith with our people to whom we have given a promise to make the College a religious institution.

Owing to the high cost of living, experienced by every one the last five or six years, we have been compelled to pay larger salaries to our professors and in addition have added some absolutely necessary courses to our curriculum which has caused the expenses to exceed our income. In this we suffer the lot common to nearly all other schools. We are not now prepared to make an exact statement of the amount of debt incurred but it is in no way alarming and we feel that we can arrange to meet it all without serious retrenchments or embarrassments of any kind.

The President of the College reports most encouraging prospects for a full attendance this year. Indeed he will, in all probability, suffer embarrassment from lack of room to care for all who apply.

Your Board is making every effort to meet the demands of our people for Christian education. The task is not an easy one but with the co-operation of our people and under the blessing of God we can make a great success of it.

Very respectfully submitted,
W. E. ARNOLD, President.
C. H. GREER, Secretary.

Orphans' Home.—The report of the Orphans' Home Committee was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE ORPHAN HOME COMMITTEE.

We, your Orphans' Home Committee, hand you herewith the following report for your consideration:

From the carefully considered report of the Superintendent, E. S. Boswell, we have been able to obtain a definite idea of what has been and is being accomplished.

We note with pleasure the thoroughly business-like manner in which the institution is managed. We commend the fostering attention received by the children, developing their physical well being, while building character and laying the foundations for lives of usefulness.

The policy of the Home to prepare the boys and girls for a business life, qualifying them to make their own living and preparing them so that they may stand mental tests with other boys and girls who have always had the best of opportunities is noted in this connection.

The report of the President, Mr. Lee Lewis, also touching the health of the children, the management of the institution and the financial status is gratifying. We note with pleasure that within the past year four splendid play rooms have been built at a cost of more than $7,000.00 and has been paid for without drawing on either the endowment or reserve fund.

Much improvement has been made on both the Home property and the rental properties, and all bills have been paid without drawing on the endowment or reserve fund. The Home has handled sixty-four children during the year, placed out twelve in good homes and now has fifty-two under its care.

Your committee would request that you confirm the election of S. O. Snyder, W. T. Baker, J. D. Lukins and Lee Lewis for three years. We deeply regret to learn of the death of Judge John C. Strother, who has served so faithfully on the Board for more than twenty-five years.

We also recommend that you confirm the election of E. S. Boswell as Superintendent and agent, and Mrs. Jessie Ray Williams as Matron. The President's report commends very highly the faithful service of these two workers.

We append herewith the financial statement of the President and Superintendent.

For Financial Statement, (See Appendix.)

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON KAVANAUGH CAMP GROUND.

The committee appointed by the Louisville and Kentucky Conferences to visit the Kavanaugh Camp Ground, located at Crestwood, Ky., and receive from the Board of Managers of said Camp any proposition they may wish to submit to the two Conferences, met at the Ground on Friday, August 18th. After conference with members of the Board of Managers, we desire to submit to the two Conferences the following resolutions:

Whereas, we find that this Camp is admirably located and possesses—potentially at least—a fine adaptability as a place for holding meetings in which the two Conferences may join, and

Whereas, we find that the title and management of this property is vested in the two Conferences herein named and that it has for more than half a century been a great gathering place for a limited constituency from the two Conferences, and

Whereas, the Board of Managers desire to give to the Camp a broader field and a larger influence by putting it more fully under the actual control of the two Conferences; therefore be it

Resolved, First, That those two Conferences take cognizance of the present Board of Managers of the Camp and either confirm or reject the members of the Board as at present constituted and that they pass upon year by year the members of the Board elected, either confirming or rejecting same.

Second. That each of the two Conferences elect quadrennially three persons who shall constitute an advisory Board to work with the Board of Managers of the Kavanaugh Camp Meeting Association in planning for the meetings that are held from year to year upon the grounds and cooperate with the Board of Managers in whatever way they can for the larger development of the Camp as a center of religious gatherings.

Third. That the various Boards and Secretaries of the two Conferences be urged to work together insofar as practicable in holding here such institutes, training schools and gatherings as may be held in unison by the two Conferences.

Fourth. That the pastors and laymen of the two Conferences be urged to take a more definite and active interest in this Camp, the preachers making it a place where they themselves shall gather from year to year for spiritual uplift and inspiration as well as announcing its meetings from their pulpits and urging their people to attend.

Fifth. That we seek by every possible means to make this Camp a mecca for the annual meetings of the two Conferences.

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL COMMITTEE.

Your Committee on Hospitals desire to report as follows:

We note with pleasure the advanced steps that were taken by our last General Conference looking to the establishing of hospitals in such centers as may be selected by the General Board.

We recommend that a Board of five, three preachers and two laymen, constitute an Annual Conference Board for the Kentucky Conference and that these be appointed for the quadrennium following their appointment.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Board to co-operate with the General Conference Board in organizing Golden Cross Societies, soliciting funds and working out plans for locating building and equipping these hospitals.

Third. That we would be pleased to have one of these hospitals located either in Lexington or Louisville.

Forward Movement and Evangelism.—The following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, a study of the statistics of the several Annual Conferences of our Church, reveals the fact that the Kentucky Conference, with one exception, is the only Conference in Southern Methodism that has actually lost in membership during the last twenty-five years, the net gain in membership for our whole Church in that period being 893,064 or nearly 62 per cent, or an average gain for each of the forty-seven Annual Conferences that were in existence at the beginning of this period, of 19,001 members, while our Conference has had a net loss in that period of 298 members, and

Whereas, it appears that the only excuse which we can plead for that loss in membership, in the face of the splendid growth in our whole

Church, is our own lack of concerted, systematic, religious application to the task of building up our Church and the Kingdom, and

Whereas, the last General Conference of our Church, by unanimous vote, passed a resolution setting up as a goal the winning of one million souls to Christ and the Church, during the next quadrennium, and

Whereas, it seems that from several causes, now is the time for the uniting of our forces and the consecration of all our powers to the end that we may move forward and redeem this regrettable past; therefore be it

Resolved, First, That we here each and all, pledge ourselves to enter together into a united campaign of sane, systematic, consecrated evangelism and systematic work; that we agree to forget all differences and lay aside all prejudices and work together as brother with brother, under the leadership of Bishop Darlington and any others who may be appointed to direct and lead us, to the end that we may win to Christ and our Church those, who by every right belong to us, and put our Church, within the territory of the Kentucky Conference, where it rightfully should be, in the front rank of the aggressive, evangelical denominations of the State; be it

Resolved, Second, That, to this end, this Annual Conference take the following definite action:

First. That we request the Board of Missions to employ a man, either from our own ranks or from the General Office of the Board of Missions, who shall make a careful, accurate survey of our missionary territory and work, and draw up for us a plan or prospectus, which shall direct us in the expenditure of our missionary money and the direction of our missionary enterprises in the coming years.

Second. That this Conference shall appoint a committee of three, who shall work out and submit from time to time through the Conference organ and in any other way that they may deem wise, a program of evangelism and aggressive work for the redemption of the past record of our Conference in the matter of growth. That we pledge ourselves, in so far as possible or practicable, to follow the suggestions of this committee and do our utmost to gather in our part of the one million souls set as the goal for our Church during the next quadrennium.

Kavanaugh Camp Ground Resolutions.—The following resolutions with reference to Kavanaugh Camp Ground were offered and adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON KAVANAUGH CAMP GROUND.

The committee appointed by the Louisville and Kentucky Conferences to visit the Kavanaugh Camp Ground, located at Crestwood, Ky., and receive from the Board of Managers of said Camp any proposition they may wish to submit to the two Conferences, met at the Ground on Friday, August 18th. After conference with members of the Board of Managers, we desire to submit to the two Conferences the following resolutions:

Whereas, we find that this Camp is admirably located and possesses—potentially at least—a fine adaptability as a place for holding meetings in which the two Conferences may join, and

Whereas, we find that the title and management of this property is vested in the two Conferences herein named and that it has for more than half a century been a great gathering place for a limited constituency from the two Conferences, and

Whereas, the Board of Managers desire to give to the Camp a broader field and a larger influence by putting it more fully under the actual control of the two Conferences; therefore be it

Resolved, First, That those two Conferences take cognizance of the present Board of Managers of the Camp and either confirm or reject the members of the Board as at present constituted and that they pass upon year by year the members of the Board elected, either confirming or rejecting same.

Second. That each of the two Conferences elect quadrennially three persons who shall constitute an advisory Board to work with the Board of Managers of the Kavanaugh Camp Meeting Association in planning for the meetings that are held from year to year upon the grounds and cooperate with the Board of Managers in whatever way they can for the larger development of the Camp as a center of religious gatherings.

Third. That the various Boards and Secretaries of the two Conferences be urged to work together insofar as practicable in holding here such institutes, training schools and gatherings as may be held unison by the two Conferences.

Fourth. That the pastors and laymen of the two Conferences be urged to take a more definite and active interest in this Camp, the preachers making it a place where they themselves shall gather from year to year for spiritual uplift and inspiration as well as announcing its meetings from their pulpits and urging their people to attend.

Fifth. That we seek by every possible means to make this Camp a mecca for the annual meetings of the two Conferences.

Ball, Jr., and J. W. Gardiner for the unexpired term made vacant by the resignation of J. L. Clark. The nominations were confirmed by the Conference.

Report of the Sunday School Board.—The following report of the Sunday School Board was read and adopted:

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD KENTUCKY CONFERENCE.

Your Board elected to consider and promote the Sunday Schools of the Conference submit the following report:

The gain in Sunday School attendance and the work done in the past year throughout the Church has been very gratifying. There was an increase in Sunday School attendance during 1921 of 399,822, and over 100,000 were received into the Church from the Sunday School. $473,769 was raised for missions. 15,279 were enrolled in teachers' training classes.

Much progress has been made in our own Conference but we have not kept pace with the movement in other parts of the Church. Mr. Dennis V. Snapp, our efficient Executive Secretary, has been active in the work of promoting the Sunday School work in the Conference. He has visited many schools, has held a large number of institutes, promoted a Standard Training School jointly conducted by the Sunday School Board and Board of Missions, and in every way possible promoted our standards.

One of the most valuable things done by the General Sunday School Board, and adopted by the General Conference was the adoption of programs of work, which are as practical as they are ideal. What can be more necessary than a goal toward which we are to strive? It reveals to us our failures and shortcomings and at the same time provides for intelligent improvement. Therefore we urge that every pastor study with painstaking, conscientious care these programs of work and then see that they receive consideration both in the Workers' Council and also be adopted as a goal in the school.

In addition to this goal for the individual school, it is a plain and self evident fact that if our Kentucky Conference makes progress in this vital work, it must be by the use of some plan agreed upon and then actively operated. Therefore we recommend the following:

I. Organization.

(1) A Sunday School organization in every congregation; (2) Sunday School membership equal to church membership; (3) 100 new

Wesley Classes organized and enrolled; (4) 20 circuits organized and operating according to "The Four-Times-A-Year Circuit Institute Plan;" (5) A minimum each year of five progressive, five advanced, and five standard schools of type "C," and a minimum of five progressive, five advanced and five Standards Schools of Type B.

II. Church Membership.

(1) The number of Sunday School members uniting with the Church equal to the number of new members joining the Sunday Schools; (2) Every baby in a Methodist home a member of the Cradle Roll and every Cradle Roll baby baptized; (3) Attendance upon the preaching services emphasized in every school; (4) Decision Day observed regularly in every school.

III. Training Plans.

(1) A minimum of 500 units issued for work done in the standard training course, 100 of these being issued to pastors; (2) A Conference wide training school each year, and a District Standard Training School in each Presiding Elder's District; (3) A Minimum of three "One-Week-One Teacher Schools" in each District; (4) Graded lessons in at least the Beginner and Primary Groups in ten additional schools each year.

IV. Financial.

(1) An average of five cents per member for missions with a monthly program on missions; (2) Every school observing Sunday School Day and taking an offering.

We desire to call the attention of the Conference to the fact that there is no special day in the program of the Church year more important than Sunday School Day (formerly called Children's Day). It is a great opportunity when properly used to bring the interests and importance of the Sunday School before the entire congregation, and the funds realized are vitally needed in any improvement made. We urge that every pastor observe Sunday School Day in conformity with the law passed by our General Conference with either a program and an offering, or at least an offering.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. GREER,

J. P. STROTHER, Secretary.

BELLE BENNETT MEMORIAL CHURCH.

Whereas, our people at Richmond, Kentucky, are making an effort to erect to the memory of Miss Belle H. Bennett, whose leadership and consecrated service so greatly blessed the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, a memorial church that will be a small expression of our very great appreciation of the consecrated service she rendered, and

We pledge T. L. Hulse, the new Editor, our cordial support and earnest co-operation.

We rejoice to know that the Illinois Conference has decided to unite with the Louisville and Kentucky Conferences in patronizing and supporting the Central Methodist.

We recommend that B. C. Horton, R. M. Smith, and O. B. Crockett be continued as our representatives on the Central Methodist Publishing Commission.

We request that the Conference appropriate $1,300.00, the same as last year, toward defraying the running expenses of the paper.

The following action was taken with reference to Race Track Gambling:

Whereas, Gambling is a vice so hurtful and ruinous both to the individual and to the community that it has been banned by law by all truly Christian peoples, and the setting up and operating a gambling device is classed as a felony in our State; and

Whereas, That device known as Pari-mutuels has been declared by our own Court of Appeals to be a gambling device and therefore the setting up and operating of such machines is classed with other felonies under our law; and

Whereas, Under the influence of the race horse interests and the gamblers of the State, our Legislature has been induced to except from an otherwise excellent anti-gambling Act the operation of Pari-mutuels on the race tracks of Kentucky, thereby legalizing a form of gambling and exempting from penalty those persons guilty of what would be a felony but for this exemption; therefore Resolved, By the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, that we denounce unsparingly the evil influences which have tampered with our Legislatures and have fastened upon our State one of the worst forms of gambling to debauch our people, impoverish innocent women and children, breed disgrace and crime, and multiply the criminals in our penal institutions.

Resolved, That we, as a part of the Christian citizenship of the great Commonwealth of Kentucky, resent the making of the State a promoter of vice and a protector of criminals.

Resolved, That we demand of those who will represent us in the next session of the Legislature of Kentucky that they wipe this disgrace from our statute books and put Kentucky in line with the forty-five other States which have outlawed this form of the gambling evil.

Resolved, further, That it is the sense of this body that our votes should be withheld from any person of any political party who will not pledge himself to work and vote for the repeal of this iniquitous law which legalizes race track gambling in our State; and that, as Christian citizens, we should use all legitimate means to secure the defeat of any person who favors the perpetuation of this gigantic evil.

American Bible Society.—The report of the American Bible Society was read and adopted:

REPORT OF THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

There is no interest taken up by any company of men that is fraught with greater good to the human race than the printing and the circulation of the Word of God by the American Bible Society.

There is probably no work more pleasing to the Master, for this Book is the revelation of the Divine Will concerning us.

The truth of this Book is the avenue through which the Holy Spirit moves upon the hearts of men, enabling them intelligently to accept their Savior.

It is the one arm of the Church that reaches out in advance of the organized body to sow the seed.

It is one of God sowers that goes forth to sow and it is not intimidated either by tribal hate or by savage treachery. It knows no fear and in opposition it triumphs.

This society is in love with its work and carries it on with splendid enthusiasm and you can no more check it in its onward march than you can arrest the Divine plan for saving the world. God's hand is upon it and His Spirit is in this movement and as He is victorious so will it be victorious.

This society issued four million eight hundred fifty-five thousand four hundred sixty-four volumes of the Holy Scripture last year which were distributed throughout this country and in Europe and from the time of its origin in 1816 to 1922 it has issued and distributed throughout the world one hundred forty-six million five hundred eighty-four thousand eight hundred and four volumes of this Book. What an enormous task performed and what wonderful results achieved.

It is impartial in its work, color is no bar, the red man, the black man, the yellow man, and the white man. It goes to the American Indian, to darkest Africa, to millions in China, to Brazil, and all the nations of the earth. This society has just supplied the penitentiary at Frankfort and Eddyville with volumes of this Book without cost and it can now sell a copy of the gospel at one cent each. Surely now the heathen world can be supplied. We urge larger liberality in your contributions to this society and also the observance of Universal Bible Sunday.

Massie Nominated.—The nomination of H. M. Massie as a member of the Board of Church Extension was approved.

Publishing Commission Report.—The following report of the Central Methodist Publishing Commission was adopted:

THE CENTRAL METHODIST.

The four years of our ownership of the Central Methodist have been years of strenuous and hard work. Many difficulties have confronted us, and no little hardship has been endured. But under the wise and able management of Dr. W. E. Arnold, as Editor, and Rev. S. A. Arnold, as Business Manager, the paper has gone steadily forward, until today, with a clean list of 6,700 subscribers. The paper presents a small balance to its credit, with all obligations met in full to date. In the make up of the paper, its contents and general appearance, it justifies a real pride in it as the Organ of our Conferences.

Unstinted praise is due the editorial and business management of the paper, and we desire to express our sincere appreciation of the untiring and able work of these faithful servants of the Church, who have given splendid service, largely as a labor of love and devotion to this very important interest of the Church. As both of these are leaving the paper to enter other work, we bid them God speed, and most heartily commend them to whatever fields of service they may enter.

The Commission of Publication has unanimously elected Rev. T. L. Hulse, of the Louisville Conference, Editor, at a salary of $3,600 per year, his entire time to be given to the paper; $1,800 is allowed per year for Business Manager, or office man.

We recommend to our Conferences the adoption of the Budget Plan as endorsed and recommended by the General Conference, and a sincere effort to put it into operation. Where this is not done we urge a most earnest effort to increase the circulation of our paper to where it may be at least comfortably self-supporting.

We ask for the same assessment as last year, i. e., $3,000, $1,700 from the Louisville Conference, and $1,300 from the Kentucky Conference for The Central Methodist.

We submit herewith a copy of the By-Laws adopted by the Commission of Publication for the Central Methodist, and ask for their approval.

The Financial Statement for the year is hereto attached, and made a part of this report.

The subscription price of the paper is $1.50 per year; $1.00 to preachers and Conference claimants, and $1.00 per year where it goes into the Budget, or is put into every home.

We take great pleasure in introducing to you, and heartily commending our brother, Rev. T. L. Hulse, as the Editor of The Central Methodist.

Respectfully submitted,

Temperance Report.—The report of the Committee on Temperance was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION.

Your Committee on Temperance and Prohibition submits the following report:

As citizens of Kentucky and of the United States who are interested for a genuine citizenship and the establishment of clean, honest government, local, state and national, we rejoice in the definite progress that has been made in Kentucky during the year just passed. We desire especially to congratulate the last Legislative body of our beloved State as well as the voters for their noble stand for law and order.

Our recent Legislature enacted a law that is not to be surpassed in any State, and what we now need is faithfulness on the part of the men in office, in their effort to enforce our laws.

Let us not think for one moment that the battle is over and the victory gained. We would suggest to this body the importance of an organized public sentiment, county and city, and local, through which we may press the battle to the finish.

We heartily commend the faithful work of Dr. N. A. Palmer, who has so faithfully represented the people of the State as Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and we recommend his re-election for the ensuing year. We also desire to express our hearty appreciation of the faithful service of Rev H. H. Mashburn, our assistant Superintendent, and of Mr. C. A. Ellis as field worker of the Anti-Saloon League. And we declare ourselves to be aggressively with the Anti-Saloon League, and also the W. C. T. U., and all other organizations whose aim is to put down the last vestige of the liquor traffic.

We herewith nominate as Trustee of the Anti-Saloon League the following persons: W. E. Arrol, M. S. Clark, J. W. Gardiner, J. T. Morgan, Ed. Mossbarger.

Education Report No. 2.—Report No. 2 of the Board of Education was read and adopted:

REPORT NO. 2 BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board of Education beg leave to report that they have tried faithfully to carry out your will in promoting the Christian Education Movement in the Kentucky Conference. Our pledges do not equal our quota but by an additional effort made last spring we secured pledges to the amount of over $25,000.00 which makes our total pledges amount to $352,000.00, on which collections amount to $88,400.00, which is more than one-fifth of the total amount pledged.

It is our conviction that we must not only collect the pledges already made but must keep up the educational spirit until we have secured additional contributions sufficient to fully equip a college that will meet every need of Kentucky Methodism in the line of Christian Education.

To accomplish this purpose your Board have set the following objectives for the immediate future: First, "To secure at least half a million dollars, in addition to pledges already made, so that we may complete our building program and make necessary additions to our endowment." Second, "To secure a student body of at least five hundred." Third, "To keep ever before us the high spiritual ideals to which we are committed." We fully realize that these are no small objectives but are even more conscious that they are not yet adequate. We are convinced that we ought to undertake them now and all work for their full realization. This will require the undivided interest and support of every lover of Christian Education in our Church.

After two years of faithful and efficient service as Conference Secretary of Education Rev. O. B. Crockett has decided to go back into the pastorate and we have chosen Rev. W. E. Arnold to take that office and ask your approval of our choice. In laying this work on him we pledge him our most hearty support in reaching our objectives. His work shall be to collect pledges already made, to secure new ones where that can be done, to secure gifts for the College on the annuity plan, to impress our people of means with the importance of remembering the cause of Christian Education in their wills, to secure pledges of life service from our young people and to encourage and help them in securing the best possible preparation for their life work and to keep burning the fires of our Christian Education spirit.

We wish to remind ourselves that the second payment of our pledges falls due November 1, 1922. As a Conference we stand committed to making every possible effort to collect these pledges when due. We therefore set apart the first week in November as "Pay-up Week," believing as we do that to meet this obligation is a sacred privilege and our first duty to our beloved Church in relation to Christian Education.

We give our most hearty approval to the following resolution passed by our General Board of Education acting under authority given by the General Conference:

"Resolved, That this Board of Education places upon record its deliberate and positive conviction that moral and religious instruction should be given in every department of the public school system of our country—primary, grammar, and high school grades, colleges and universities; such instruction to be given without cost to the state, if necessary, in the lower grades, and to be offered as optional courses in colleges and universities; such optional courses, when completed, to be given equal credit with other courses of equal intellectual and cultural value."

We are glad to have had with us Dr. Stonewall Anderson, Secretary of Education in our Church, and beg to assure him of our hearty co-operation in the plans of the General Board of Education.

We request the Conference to make an assessment of $12,000.00 for Conference Education and of $800.00 for Aid to Young Ministers.

We report the following educational statistics: Institutions, 1; Teachers, 16; Students, 135; Value of Property, $330,000.00; Endowment, $123,000.00.

Very respectfully submitted,

W. E. ARNOLD, President.

C. H. GREER, Secretary.

League Report.—The report of the Epworth League Board was adopted as follows:

Your Epworth League Board begs leave to submit the following report:

The quadrennial report of the General Secretary emphasizes the very apparent truth that the Epworth League "is more vital, more useful, and more popular than ever and is increasingly demonstrating the wisdom of the Church in appropriating the young people's religious society to her denominational uses."

The growth in chapters and membership has been encouraging, and proceeds at an accelerated rate.

The League has long been tried, and been found true. It is admirably adapted to the nurturing, strengthening, and utilization of the spiritual life of the young people unto holy living, and unselfish service, and provides for manifold expression of Christian life to the glory of God and the upbuilding of His kingdom. Wisely used, it meets the needs of the most critical, the formative period of life.

Gratifying success has attended the work of the Epworth League in the summer assemblies which have been productive of instruction, inspiration, and devotion, and of thousands of volunteers for life service whose declaration cards are on file with the Life Service Superintendent.

Missionary information has been widely diffused through Mission Study courses, and gifts for Missionary purposes have multiplied. The concrete results of the League's activities are large and glorious.

The Epworth Era, our League organ, is one of the best publications issuing from our Publishing House. It is an inspiring and helpful literature and the treatment of themes for the devotional meeting are rich in intellectual stimulus, and spiritual helpfulness. Financially it yields a profit.

Your Board has been diligent in seeking to increase the interest in, and work of the Epworth League, and solicits the hearty co-operation of all and of the ministry in particular. To this end the bi-monthly messages to pastors were planned and is carried on.

In view of the disciplinary command to organize Epworth Leagues in all our congregations, the great need in the life of the young people, and the greater usefulness in the development and ability of the young life of the Church, therefore be it

Resolved, That we pledge our increased interest, liberal help, and loyal co-operation in all that appertains to the work, and success of the Epworth League within our bounds.

(Signed) J. E. SAVAGE, Ch'n.

J. W. CRATES, Sec'y.

District Records.—The report of the Committee on District Conference Records was adopted.

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, have examined the records of the District Conferences and have found them to be correct.

B. C. GAMBLE, Secretary.

Report Treasurer Board Missions.—W. V. Cropper, Treasurer of the Board of Missions, made his report. (See Appendix.)

Sabbath Observance Report.—The following report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance was adopted:

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance feels and wishes to impress upon you the importance of this question. The Sabbath is one of the two institutions that has survived the fall of man, having come out of the garden of Eden when God created all things.

During the six creative days man was not present. he was the culmination of creation. When he looked forth upon the world in the dawn of his existence he found that God who had made him was observing the Sabbath, which simply means rest. To Adam it was the first day while to God it was the seventh day, following the six days of creation.

From what we have said we see that the Sabbath was not of Mosaic origin. It began with the race. It belongs to the race.

When Moses incorporated the Sabbath commandment in the Decalogue, he introduced it with the word "Remember." No other commandment was thus introduced. He did not say "Remember" thou shalt not kill, nor "Remember" thou shalt not covet. The word "Remember" in this commandment has a real significance. It bids us remember an Edemic institution, thus pointing backward it also points forward saying the Sabbath is coming, prepare for its observance.

We are not under the Jewish statutory law which commanded that a man be stoned for gathering up sticks on the Sabbath, but the day is yet sacred. It is a "Holy" Day. This time should be separated from the world and kept as a "Holy" Day for our spiritual development and soul culture. Let the Sabbath not be a day of business, of pleasure, or of "gadding" about.

We, as Christian people, should not, as far as possible, ride the Sunday trains, we should not buy, subscribe for or read a Sunday newspaper, we should not use our automobiles as a means of Sabbath desecration, for we believe the modern automobile to be, perhaps, the greatest source of Sabbath desecration of today. It is also our duty as Christian men and women to put the ban on Sunday base ball and the Sunday movies, these we most heartily believe not only against the moral law but also contrary to the law of our land.

The commandment "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy" says that we are also held responsible for the unnecessary work we put on our hired help and beasts of burden. The Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath, it should be a day of rest and spiritual development of our whole being; therefore, it is our duty to defend and maintain the American Sunday as a day of rest and spiritual opportunity; to promote, in every legitimate way, the observance of this day as the Christians' Sabbath; and to unite the Christian citizenship of our community in a concerted effort to secure these ends and to abolish all unnecessary labor.

In conclusion we would recommend that all our pastors preach at least one special sermon annually on Sabbath Observance.

Respectfully submitted,

J. R. KENDALL, Chairman.
DR. T. G. COOK, Secretary.

Church Extension Report.—The report of the Board of Church Extension was adopted:

REPORT OF BOARD OF EXTENSION.

Your Board of Extension has had its usual problem of attempting to make $1,800.00 satisfy applications for aid aggregating $9,000.00. The Board needs greatly increased funds for donation and for loan. The loan fund should be multiplied. Our people should keep in mind possible contributors to this fund, reminding them of the annuity scheme of the Board. We should not be too ready to suggest this assistance in building projects except in urgent and needy cases. The architectural department of the Board should be consulted before any building project is undertaken. It will prevent mistakes and save money.

The Board will have its fire protection department ready for operation within a few months. Pastors should keep on hands a supply of the pamphlet literature for free distribution as opportunity may be found.

The assessment for the coming year is: Conference Board, $2938; General Board, $2938; total $5876.

MEMOIR

REV. J. H. WILLIAMS.

Rev. J. H. Williams was born in Washington County, Kentucky, May 9th, 1849; and closed his eyes to earthly scenes at his country home in Scott County, to enter upon the reward of the faithful May 18th, 1922.

Godly parents are a precious heritage. History tells of one grand patriarch whose crowning distinction was that he was "The friend of God and father of the faithful." The best word that inspiration has for Abraham is that "He commanded his children and his household after him." Brother Williams' experience of saving grace, which was so modestly, but challengingly given in the class meeting and in the Conference Love-feast, "Converted at sixteen years of age and never back-sled;" should be recalled in connection with another very suggestive and summoning fact: "His noble father lived to a very ripe old age, and was a shouting Methodist."

Another factor in his perennially vital and refreshing experience deserves a passing word. Brother Williams received his training for life's work in Kentucky Wesleyan College. There he came in contact with a group of choice spirits—young men whose names have gathered increasing fragrance with the passing years: young men whose character and scholarship and devotion have enriched the life of both our College and our Conference. It is not surprising therefore, that his religious life was free from those dreadful lapses and declensions that have brought shame and reproach to many of his fellow Christians.

Brother Williams was admitted on trial into the Kentucky Conference at Maysville, Ky., in 1875. He was ordained a local deacon at the time of his admission by Bishop Marvin, and appointed to Barbourville. In September, 1879, he was ordained an elder by Bishop Dogget. He then served the following charges in the order named: Worthville, Washington, Hebron, West Liberty, Somerset, Owingsville, Old Fort, Georgetown, Mt. Hope, Port Royal, Christiansburg, Millersburg, Milton, Shiloh, Beard, Lancaster, Salvisa, Little Rock, New Columbus, Polsgrove and Mt. Hope. For two score and one years he functioned as a faithful Methodist preacher, going where he was sent and giving to his people the best service of which he was capable.

In March, 1894, in the Methodist parsonage at Cynthiana, Kentucky, Brother Williams was joined in marriage to Miss Edith Hamon, who survives him; the Rev. Geo. W. Young officiating.

Following his superannuation in 1916, Brother Williams retired to the ancestral home of sister Williams, where they lived in beautiful devotion to each other, and in blessed fellowship with a kindly people, who remembered his faithful ministrations of former years. The old home faces a heavily wooded hill, with here and there a giant tree beneath whose spreading branches he often knelt to pray at eventide. "God's Temples," he called them, and when the shadows had gathered about him, when his feet had touched the river of death and the mists from that river were coming up into his face, his eyes rested lovingly on the old trees. Those who were near him till the last labored breath, saw his lips moving and heard him saying:

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills whence cometh my help."

His funeral was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. W. B. Hall and Rev. Geo. W. Young in Mt. Giliad Church, where a sorrowful congregation gathered to pay affectionate tribute to him who had twice been their beloved Shepherd.

His earthly remains were carried back to Washington County, and tenderly laid to rest in Pleasant Grove Cemetery amid the familiar scenes of his childhood. He sleeps well and his memory is precious.

ISABEL HARRIS BENNETT.

Isabel Harris Bennett was born December 3, 1852, and was one of eight children of the late Samuel Bennett and his wife, Elizabeth Chenaault, of whom only one survives, Mr. Waller Bennett, of Richmond, Ky. She grew into lovely young womanhood at "Homelands," the home of her parents at White Hall, near Richmond, Madison County, Ky., surrounded by every comfort that affluence could give. She was the joy of the grand old mansion of ante-bellum days, where an elegant and bountiful hospitality was dispensed through many years. Hers was a

ISABEL HARRIS BENNETT.

Isabel Harris Bennett was born December 3, 1852, and was one of eight children of the late Samuel Bennett and his wife, Elizabeth Chenaault, of whom only one survives, Mr. Waller Bennett, of Richmond, Ky. She grew into lovely young womanhood at "Homelands," the home of her parents at White Hall, near Richmond, Madison County, Ky., surrounded by every comfort that affluence could give. She was the joy of the grand old mansion of ante-bellum days, where an elegant and bountiful hospitality was dispensed through many years. Hers was a family that valued education, the sons taking their degrees from Yale, Centre College, old Transylvania, and other universities; and the daughters receiving their training at the best private schools of the day.

Miss Bennett received her early education from Dr. Robert L. Breck, an eminent Presbyterian divine, and one of the notable scholars of her day, where she became proficient in belles lettres and the classics. She later attended a private school at College Hill, Ohio, which ranked at that time as the best school for the training of young women in the West. She was later sent to Nazareth, a Catholic school near Bardstown, Ky. Endowed by nature with splendid ability and many noble traits of character, she carried in her presence dignity and graciousness and that personal magnetism which drew the most cultured and favored to her wherever she went. All the graces of Southern womanhood were hers. She was also possessed of those qualities that made her ever the center of a devoted family circle. Her closest friends were those of a lifetime.

Any reference to this unusual life would be scarcely complete without mentioning those from whom she descended, whose qualities of leadership were, many of them, embodied in her character and career. She numbered among her ancestors those who were among the earliest at the founding of Jamestown; members of the House of Burgess of the Colony of Virginia, those who led their troops in the Colonial wars; and those who aided in the defense of Fort Boonesborough and in the founding of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. In the century and a half, which have elapsed since pioneer days, many of her connections have served in legislative bodies; in two instances as Governors of states and members of the United States Senate. An uncle on the distaff side helped to frame the Constitution of Kentucky in 1799. The Hon. John Bennett, a brother, was for many years an able lawyer at the Kentucky Bar, and a member of the State Senate of Kentucky. In every war in which our country has been involved her kith and kin have borne their part. It was under her kinsman, Col. Waller Chenault, that the young manhood of Madison County joined the army of the Confederacy, and it was typical of her broad interest, that, a few years ago when she found that no portrait of Col. Chenault had been placed in the Confederate Museum at Richmond, Va., she paused in her busy life to see that this was done, bearing the expense herself.

She was an honored member of the Boonesborough Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution. In all that she planned and executed she had the vision of a statesman, and it was possibly through qualities inherited from ancestors skilled in affairs of state, and from other ancestors of heroic minds, who were willing even to leave their native land of France in centuries gone by, that they might worship God as conscience dictated, that she found, as the years went by, her interest in the affairs of the great world broadening and deepening, and became possessed of a constant desire to have a larger part in the work of making the world better through the service and fear of God.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of which she early became a member, had been the spiritual home of her family for several generations. It was through this great body of consecrated men and women that she elected to do her part. Her supreme effort was for her own church, and yet so wise was her service that all Protestant churches became her beneficiaries. She had a great talent for organization. She also soon became a splendid platform speaker. For years, she was the foremost representative of the great body of the Southern Methodist Communion at all national and international conferences where her words carried force and her wisdom great light. She was its representative at the great International Missionary Convention at Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1910; at the great Conference in Panama in behalf of Latin America in 1916; and at the international Missionary Council which had its first meeting in the fall of 1921, at Lake Mohawk, N. Y. She was the only woman member of the joint commission that planned the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of Missions of the two great Methodisms, North and South.

In 1920, Miss Bennett and Mrs. Luke G. Johnson, of Atlanta, Ga., were sent to Europe for the purpose of locating new fields of missions for the Methodist Church, made possible by its centenary gifts. Through her broad travels and her work she came in contact with many of the greatest minds of her day and many of the most notable men and women of her time. Hers was also a gifted and forceful pen, and both by her pen and through the spoken word, she was ever on the alert to carry far the betterment of her generation. Perhaps the greatest missionary work of her career was the establishment of the Scarritt Bible and Training School of Kansas City, Mo., where hundreds of missionaries and volunteer workers have been trained for the fields, both at home and abroad. The raising of funds to establish this great school was Miss Bennett's first great public service. Her latest missionary achievement was the bringing together of a number of Woman's Missionary Boards of America for the establishment of a great health center and school for the training of nurses in Shanghai, China. This is to be a medical school for the women of China, and be the consummation of a vision that was for years in her heart. In the city of Rio de Janeiro, South America, the largest institution of learning of her church is named "Bennett College" in her honor.

In the giving of her ability, time and strength, she gave also of her means to every cause in which she was interested. She attributed the success of every undertaking to the guidance and blessing of Him whom she served. In the world war she did her part. Her capacity for work was almost unparalleled. She not only led for years the missionary work of her Church, but found time to give to the social side of life, to her individual church, to her community, her family and her friends, and to many advance movements.

She was an early advocate of the higher education of women. Through her influence many of her friends and her family became students at Smith College, Wellesley, Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Vassar. She was also among the earliest to unite with other members of her family in advocating suffrage for women. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union was another cause to which she gave earnest work and prayers. She enjoyed all that was beautiful in art, good in books and noble in purpose. The great progress of science and invention was an unceasing source of interest.

"As one lamp lights another nor grows less,
So nobleness enkindleth nobleness."

These words inscribed in one of the alcoves of the Congressional Library in Washington, seem appropriate to apply to this life. The lamp which burned in her heart, and led to the founding of schools; the training of missionaries for every land and clime; to constant journeyings in her own land and in Europe, Asia and Africa, South America and the Islands of the Sea; to the founding of hospitals; to the promotion of education; to the protection of women and children and progress along all lines for her own race—and for every race—has lighted lamps in a multitude of other hearts, which will not be extinguished until our Savior comes. May every ideal which she cherished, and every work to which her life was consecrated, be brought to fruition.

She leaves to her family, and her community, and her church, the priceless memory of a great and wonderful life. She was ours in royal service. "Blessed are they that love His appearing." Then truly blessed must she be, whose many years were given to this end, that the day might be brought nearer when her Savior should return to claim His own.

"Oh! warrior blest,
Our fairest, choicest flowers
Shall fall in fragrant showers,
Where you rest."
